

HOW HAVE YOUR DONATIONS HELPED?

“Without Lincoln, I wouldn’t have a job. I wouldn’t have my friends. I wouldn’t be independent, or be able to visit my family in New Mexico. Having a job means everything, period.”

– Kevin Pierce, LTC Client

Kevin Pierce has been with Lincoln Training Center since 2007. As Lincoln has expanded, so have Kevin’s skills. At Lincoln, Kevin has learned new job skills such as landscaping, grounds maintenance, and even dog grooming. Currently, he works at Georg Fischer Signet assembling electronic cabling kits. The money he earns allows him to live independently.

We are asking you to make a tax-deductible donation today so we can continue to help individuals like Kevin find meaningful employment.

We now serve 600 individuals with disabilities annually at 100 work sites throughout California.

We have expanded our Veterans Program. By collaborating with Disabled Veterans Business Enterprise (DVBE), Service-disabled veterans undertake construction projects for the California Department of Food and Agriculture and the State Military Department.

Over 55 adults with disabilities are now working to maintain 23 roadside rest areas in California.

NEW OFFICE! We now have 5 offices, including our newest location in Stockton.

Over 40 people are now employed by the County of San Joaquin. These individuals clean nearly 544,000 sq. ft. of office space!
